GOVERNMENT OF ARUNACHAL PRADESH
OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER HAWAI,
DISTRICT ANJAW, CAMP TEZU

No.ARR/DM-14/10-11/

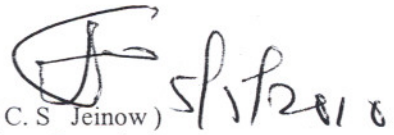

Dated Tezu the 5th May 10

CIRCULAR

As you are aware that Anjaw District has experienced heavy rainfall and cloud burst like situation during the month of April 2010 causing massive damages to public as well as private properties in terms of BRO roads, village link roads, porter tracts, bridges, culverts, foot suspension bridges, drainages, and dwelling houses, electrical poles, hydel projects, standing crops etc. Reports of loss of human lives caused by flash flood from Manchal Circle have also been received.

Road communications connecting the administrative centers have been cut off. District headquarter Hawaii, Sub-divisional headquarter Hayuliang, also remained cut off from the rest of the world. Telephone and mobile services have also become defunct due to shortage of resources and blockade of road. Power supply remained cut off.

Therefore, it is considered expedient to activate the District/sub-divisional and Circle disaster management machineries for rendering immediate relief, rehabilitation and restoration work by mobilizing the available resources. Therefore, all the concerned administrative Officers, all executive engineers of various working departments, DAO, DVO, DMO, PD, DPO, DHO, ADTH other HoDs of Anjaw District are hereby requested to extend full cooperation in organizing the relief rehabilitation and restoration work in the District on top most priority. Officers leaving the station at this juncture shall jeopardize the disaster management work. All are requested to stay in their respective headquarters till disaster management work is completed.
